About The .ORG Impact Awards

Overview
For more than 30 years, the .ORG domain has powered the inspirations of people around the globe. From individuals to large corporations, small community groups to multinational NGOs, each .ORG aims to positively impact the communities they serve.

The .ORG Impact Awards recognize .ORGs that are connecting communities, making a difference in the world and leveraging the internet for transformative change. This first annual program celebrates .ORG domain name users of all sizes for their accomplishments in community mobilization, marketing and outreach, and mission achievement.

Submission Fees
.ORG – a mission-driven organization itself – aims to empower and connect those who inspire the world, and as such, does not charge organizations to enter The .ORG Impact Awards. Rather, it awards finalists with a donation to their nonprofit of choice.

Why Apply?
The .ORG Impact Awards celebrate your purpose-driven achievements as a member of the .ORG community. Your great work will be reviewed by an esteemed judging panel comprised of leaders in the internet, nonprofit and marketing sectors. Benefits include:
- The potential to win up to a $5,000 contribution to your non-profit or NGO organization of choice
- Attending a celebratory event in Washington, D.C. to receive the award and hear remarks from industry leaders
- In addition to a custom award, a dedicated logo mark will be provided for finalists and winners to promote their achievements
- The opportunity to be featured in various .ORG digital platforms throughout the year, including articles, videos, social posts and more
- Raise the profile of your .ORG to increase the potential of partnership development, talent acquisition and audience reach
- Providing additional validation to your programs that can help build, strengthen and fund them in the future

Key Dates
- Monday, May 20 – Submission period opens
- Friday, July 12 – Submission period closes
- Mid-August – Finalists Announced

All finalists will receive two complimentary invitations to the Awards Ceremony, which includes a dinner, entertainment and networking.
Categories

The .ORG Impact Awards seek to celebrate significant achievements by members of the .ORG community through three distinct categories of awards, each having their own sub-categories: Individual Awards, honoring the contribution of an individual to their organization or the organization's broader sector; Sector Awards, recognizing organizational and team accomplishments; and Initiative Awards, celebrating programmatic achievement in a specific online niche area.

I. INDIVIDUAL AWARDS

The Individual Award category recognizes the personal contribution of one person in support of their organization (which must use a .ORG domain) or to the broader community and/or mission under which the organization operates. Achievement will be honored in the following award categories:

1. Innovator Award – The Innovator Award will be given to an individual who has broken new ground for an organization by demonstrating new ways of thinking, approaching and/or solving-issues or challenges.

2. Rising Star Award – The Rising Star Award recognizes a professional with five or fewer years of experience for exceptional contribution to his/her affiliated organization. A “Rising Star” individual is someone who has exhibited initiative and leadership around a specific task, project or campaign.

3. Outstanding Volunteer – The Outstanding Volunteer Award will honor an individual who has shown above-and-beyond support of an organization in an unpaid role.

II. SECTOR AWARDS

Registrants of the .ORG domain transcend the traditional nonprofit world, and include for-profit organizations and community groups as well. The following awards will recognize one outstanding organization within these three sectors:

1. .ORG Nonprofit of the Year – This award is open to all not-for-profit and non-governmental organizations using the .ORG domain, and honors outstanding achievement as evidenced by results and/or contributions to their sector, constituents, community or society at large. Submitting organizations must provide validation of their nonprofit status.

2. .ORG CSR Program of the Year – The Corporate Social Responsibility (CSR) Sector Award is open to for-profit organizations and will honor outstanding wholly-owned citizenship programs, social enterprises, sustainability initiatives, cause marketing campaigns, nonprofit partnerships and other CSR activities, as evidenced by results and/or contributions to beneficiaries, communities or society at large. The CSR program or its partner(s)/beneficiary(ies) must use the .ORG domain.

3. .ORG Community Group of the Year – This Sector Award is open to any group using the .ORG domain that doesn’t identify as a traditional non-profit or for-profit organization, but that has demonstrated excellence and outstanding achievement as evidenced by team work and community mobilization, as well as results and/or contributions to their community, constituents, beneficiaries and/or society at large.
III. INITIATIVE AWARDS
There are many strategies that organizations can deploy to achieve philanthropic, marketing and business goals. The following awards will recognize .ORGs, unless otherwise stated, for various programmatic initiatives that support broader organizational goals, with a focus on online-based initiatives:

1. Best Social Media Campaign – Entry should highlight how a social media channel or collection of channels were used to accomplish a specific goal.

2. Top #GivingTuesday Campaign – Entry should showcase how an organization used the #GivingTuesday online holiday to achieve a goal. Note that this category is open to nonprofits who encouraged donations/service to their own organizations, as well as for-profits/individuals who encouraged donations/service on behalf of nonprofits operating on the .ORG domain.

3. Outstanding Online Fundraising Campaign – Entry should highlight how an organization achieved fundraising goals through online channels and tactics. Note that this category is open to nonprofits who encouraged donations to their own organizations, as well as for-profits/individuals who encouraged donations on behalf of nonprofits operating on the .ORG domain.

4. Outstanding Microsite – Entry should feature a separate, standalone .ORG microsite that is independent from the organization's main website (which could also be a .ORG or on another domain), and highlight its purpose and accomplishments.

5. Outstanding Website Redesign – Entry should feature an organization's website redesign, and highlight its purpose and accomplishments.

6. Best Integrated Communications Campaign – Entry should showcase how more than one communications channel contributed to a program and its goals.

7. Best Use of Partnerships/Celebrity Endorsements – Entry should highlight how a partnership with an organization, company/brand or celebrity/influencer contributed to a program accomplishment.

8. Outstanding Multimedia Content – Entry should showcase the accomplishments of one or a series of multimedia assets, including but not limited to photography, infographics, videos, collateral elements or social media content.

9. Outstanding Community Relations Campaign – Entry should highlight a complete campaign, built to reach a defined community around a defined goal.

Tips for Preparing Your Entry

The best tip for preparing a submission is to recruit a team!

- First, recruit a team to help decide which category and subcategory (or multiple categories/subcategories) your organization is best suited for.
- Then, assign a project leader to oversee and manage your submission and team.
- Next, develop a plan for completing your entry and gathering supporting materials by the deadline.
- Lastly, consider developing your submission “offline” for easy review and editing, and then copy/paste it into the online entry form.

Consider these four steps when developing your submission:

1. Writing Your Entry
   Your entry will win the award for you — don't underestimate it. Make each response to each entry question succinct and engaging. Make sure your answers address the elements required under each category and sub-category. Think about organizing the entry responses like you’re telling a story, which will help give the judges a complete picture of the situation or challenge you’re addressing, how you or your nominee developed a plan to approach the situation and how success was measured.

   When looking at initiatives specifically, it’s important to keep your entry straightforward and to the point. Give the judge a good overview of your organization, issue and approach, but don’t get lost in the weeds – focus on the initiative.

   The following questions are provided as thought starters to help you approach preparation of strong entry responses, but please remember to address the actual questions in the online form (also above) when submitting your entry.

   Situation Analysis
   - What was the plan in general terms? Was it in response to an existing problem, or does it examine a potential problem?
   - Was research used to examine or define a situation— primary, secondary or both? Primary research involves original research, including focus groups, interviews and surveys. Secondary research involves searching existing resources for information.

   Strategic Approach
   - If conducted, how did the research shape the planning process?
   - What were the specific goals of your plan? Were there measurable objectives of the plan?
   - What was your budget? If there was low or no budget available, how did you overcome this challenge?

   Programmatic Execution
   - How did activities flow?
   - What was your timeline?
   - What were the key tactics or activities?
   - Who were the target audiences?
   - Were there any difficulties encountered? If so, how were they handled?

Results
May 10, 2019
● What happened? What were your results?
● How did you evaluate your results? What methods did you use?
● How did the results compare to the specific goals or measurable objectives outlined in your strategic approach?
● How well do the results reflect original strategy and planning?

2. Pulling Together Your Backup Materials
It's important to provide backup materials to your summary. It will give the judges a chance to see your work and how that work was translated into action. If you talk about something in your summary, include the documentation for it. Consider “before” and “after” photos, if applicable, to document your progress, change and results. The judges are looking for evidence of your hard work, so be sure to show it off!

3. Review your Entry
Now that you've put in all that work, don't let it go to waste. Proof and reproof! Remember that judges are representing a variety of industries and sectors – remove any jargon and explain anything they may need to know about your organization or local community. Go through the award category descriptions again – are you meeting all the requirements? Let your entry sit for a day, then look at it again. Anything you can delete? Anything you missed?

4. Submitting Your Entry
It's now time to submit through the online submission platform.
● Visit The .ORG Impact Awards website to access the submission platform managed by Awards Force. You'll need to create a profile with Awards Force and can use your profile to manage and submit as many submissions as you'd like: https://www.orgimpactawards.org
